BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Recommends the continuance of the Barr guard to the said mate for a period of 3 years from July 1926 as a special case.

NOTES AND ORDERS

1 Some Irrigation Collections on the Subject are herewith Submitted.

property during the Enemy's stay a Barr Guard of 6 Sepoys and one Naik, was sanctioned in S.O. 10th May 1916 for a period of 2 years and is being continued and under S.O. 28-6-1923, the Barr Guard will continue till 1st July 1926 - The object with which the Barr Guard was sanctioned is indicated in the latest members minutes of 30-10-1924 and it will be seen therefrom that, for duty at the head-Quarters of the Mall, the Mall is not entitled to be given a Barr Guard. In S.O. of 13.1.1922, the Enemy's request for a permanent deputation of a Barr Guard, was negatived.

3 The Enemy requests that whether he is in Headquarters or in town, for the watch and ward of the Mall properties, a permanent deputation of a Barr Guard may be sanctioned.

4 In para 2 of S.O. of 28-6-23, the Enemy was definitely informed that further continuance of the Guard cannot be sanctioned and that before the end of June 1926, he should make his own arrangements in the ...

Sir,

Adverting to Government Order No. No. 3098-100/...E. 13-2-3 --- dated 28th June 1926 sanctioning the continuance of the Guard under the Sri Vasaramavuri Matha till the end of June 1926, I have the honour to forward herewith my report No. 12 dated 30th March 1926 from the Executive Officer in charge - to Government for having deputed the guards for the protection and ward of the Matha properties and requesting that in the event of the Matha and the valuable properties contained in it, the guard may be permanently deputed instead of short extensions being granted.

Though the permanent retention of the guard may not be possible yet it seems to be that in the interest of the Swamiji and the Matha also, the continuance of the guard for a further period on an extended tour for which a Railway pass is obtained from the Government of Madras. I beg accordingly to submit that the decision arrived at in para 2 of the order referred to above may kindly be re-considered and the guard allowed to continue for a period of 3 years more, as a special case, on the same conditions as before. No other arrangements to be made by the Swamiji himself will be helpful as efficient as the present guard.

I have the honour to be,
